2.6 Methodology, Approval Procedures and Review – Benchmark Regulation Article 27.2.b).

A benchmark statement shall contain at least the rationale for adopting the benchmark methodology and procedures for the review and approval of the methodology.

The methodology of Latibex Index family is established in the Technical Regulations for the Composition and Calculation of Latibex Indices, which highlights the key elements according to Article 13 of the Benchmark Regulation and to the specified in the Technical Regulations according to section 3, Article 13 of Benchmark Regulation.

The Index Management Secretariat research studies periodically to evaluate the necessity to modify the methodology in its annual revision.

The Technical Regulations shall be reviewed periodically and at least every one year. The purpose of these reviews is, on the one hand, to ensure that the indices continue representing the reality they are intended to measure and, on the other, to ensure their role as underlying assets in the trading of derivative products, this means, that they continue to be appropriate, representative and replicable. The changes that affect, among others, to the calculation formula, to the selection of components, or to the redefinition of the indices contemplated in the Present Regulations, are considered as Substantial changes.

Any modification or alteration of the Technical Regulations must be approved by the Board of Directors of Sociedad de Bolsas, following a report by the Indexes Technical Advisory Committee at the proposal of the Indexes Manager.

Said modifications or alterations shall be made public no later than 48 hours after the corresponding decision has been made and shall become effective within seven days following their publication, unless otherwise expressly agreed.

2.7 Criteria and Procedures Used to Determine the Benchmark – Benchmark Regulation Article 27.2.c.).

A benchmark statement shall contain at least the criteria and procedures used to determine the benchmark including a description of the input data, the priority given to different types of input data, the minimum data needed to determine a benchmark, the use of any models or methods of extrapolation and any procedure for rebalancing the constituents of a benchmark's index.

Delegated Regulation 2018/1643 Article 2.

In addition to the information to be included pursuant to Article 1, for a regulated-data benchmark or, where applicable, family of regulated-data benchmarks, the benchmark statement shall state at least the following in its description of the input data:

- a) the sources of the input data used;*
- b) for each source, the relevant type, as listed in Article 3(1)(24) of Regulation (EU) 2016/1011.*

The input data used for the real-time calculation of the Latibex Index family are prices based only on trades executed in the indices' components by market members, in the order book, in the general trading system, prices calculated in accordance with the Latibex Market Regulation, and consequently, the intervention of a sufficient number of market participants. The input data comes from traded and closing prices in a multilateral trading facility MTF, Latibex, within Bolsas y Mercados Españoles.

The Latibex Index family is calculated during the opening session of the Latibex market, between 08:30 and the official close (currently 17:35 local Central European Time). Actually, the trading hours for the market is from 11:30 am to 17:38 pm.

The indices values do not vary during the period of adjustments of the market because no trades can be made. The periods of adjustment are the opening auction between 8:30 to 11:30am During this period, an estimated value of the index will be calculated.

The indices values are calculated in real-time and should vary whenever a company included therein trades at a different previous price. Generally, the valid price to be taken shall be the price at which the last transaction was made in the BME MTF Latibex Market. The Indexes will use last trade prices for securities. Prices will be sourced from the Latibex market. (The Benchmark Administrator may decide to use prices from other liquid exchanges if it considers this is necessary to ensure the use of accurate and reliable prices.)

The minimum information to determine Latibex Index family are detailed 3.1.2.1. Price and 3.1.2.2. Number of Shares of the Technical Regulations for the Composition and Calculation of Latibex Indices.

The procedure for rebalancing the indices' constituents according to methodology and periodicity is described in sections 3.1.1. Composition of the index, 3.2, 3.3, and 2.2. Index Manager of the Technical Regulations for the Composition and Calculation of Latibex Indices

2.8 Controls and Rules that Govern any Exercise of Judgement or Discretion – Benchmark Regulation Article 27.2.d).

A benchmark statement shall contain at least the controls and rules that govern any exercise of judgement or discretion by the administrator or any contributors, to ensure consistency in the use of such judgement or discretion.

Delegated Regulation 2018/1643 Article 1.4.

In specifying the controls and rules that govern any exercise of judgement or discretion by the administrator or any contributors in calculating the benchmark or benchmarks, the benchmark statement shall include an outline of each step of the process for any ex post evaluation of the use of discretion, together with a clear indication of the position of any person(s) responsible for carrying out the evaluations.

In accordance with the Article 1(7) of the Delegated Regulation (EU) 2018/1643, the Article 1(4) is not for application as the Latibex Index family are non-significant benchmarks.

A benchmark statement shall contain at least the procedures which govern the determination of the benchmark in periods of stress or periods where transaction data sources may be insufficient, inaccurate or unreliable and the potential limitations of the benchmark in such periods.

The procedures governing the determination of the benchmarks in periods of stress are detailed in sections 3.1.2.1. Price and 3.1.2.2. Number of Shares of the Technical Regulations for the Composition and Calculation of Latibex Indices.

Sociedad de Bolsas publishes daily on its website the Latibex Market Bulletin, that contains relevant data to verify that the data employed for the index calculation are sufficient, accurate and reliable, in accordance with sections d and e, Article 2(1), and Article 2(2) of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2018/1638.

With regard to the sufficiency of the securities data, the report details on a daily basis the trading volume, the number of securities traded and the turnover of the securities included in the Spanish Stock Exchange Interconnection System.

2.10 Procedures for Dealing With Errors in the Determination of the Benchmark – Benchmark Regulation Article 27.2.f).

A benchmark statement shall contain at least the procedures for dealing with errors in input data or in the determination of the benchmark, including when a redetermination of the benchmark is required.

Sociedad de Bolsas makes available an Index Correction Procedure about the Calculation of Sociedad de Bolsas' Indices, where provides the possible corrections that should be introduced to the data associated to the indices or to its calculation, in case there has been any inaccuracy or error, which has been noticed after its publication.

2.11 Possible Limitations of the Benchmark – Benchmark Regulation Article 27.2.g).

A benchmark statement shall contain at least the identification of potential limitations of the benchmark, including its operation in illiquid or fragmented markets and the possible concentration of inputs.

Delegated Regulation 2018/1643 Article 1.3.

In defining the potential limitations of the benchmark and the circumstances in which the measurement of the market or economic reality may become unreliable, the benchmark statement shall include at least:

- a) a description of the circumstances in which the administrator would lack sufficient input data to determine the benchmark in accordance with the methodology;
 - b) where relevant, a description of instances when the accuracy and reliability of the methodology used for determining the benchmark can no longer be ensured, such as when the administrator deems the liquidity in the underlying market as insufficient;
 - c) any other information that the administrator reasonably considers to be relevant or useful to help users and potential users to understand the circumstances in which the measurement of the market or economic reality may become unreliable, including a description of what might constitute an exceptional market event.
- a) In exceptional circumstances in which all or part of the market is not disseminating the values' price, due to trading suspensions, volatility auctions, technical interruptions, etc. where a security is suspended from trading for whatever reason, the valid price to be taken for the calculation of the Index shall be the price at which the last transaction was made prior to the suspension of the security in question.
 - b) Where a security is suspended from trading for whatever reason (takeover bid, etc.) the valid price to be taken for the calculation of the Index shall be the price at which the last transaction was made prior to the suspension of the security in question. In the section 3.1.2.1 Price of the Technical regulations contemplates the description of what might happen what measures could be taken in those situations.
 - c) In accordance with the Article 1(7) of the Delegated Regulation (EU) 2018/1643, the Article 1(2)(c) is not for application as the Latibex Index family are non-significant benchmarks
