Safeguards deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors to ensure the authenticity and identity of the shareholder exercising the right to vote are the "qualified" electronic signature and the "advanced" electronic signature as stipulated by the Electronic Signatures Act (Law 59/2003, of 19 December). Electronic signatures shall comprise either (i) a valid Electronic User Certificate issued by the Spanish Public Certification body, CERES, a division of the national mint, provided that there is no record of its revocation, or (ii) the recognised electronic certificate which forms part of the user's electronic National Identity Card issued pursuant to Royal Decree 1553/2005 of 23 December 2005, regulating the issue of National Identity Cards and electronic signature certificates.

Therefore, on the day and in the place of the Shareholders' Meeting, the appointed proxies must show their National Identify Card or passport as proof of identity and hand in a printed copy of the proxy appointment granted by postal or electronic means, duly signed by both the proxy holder and the proxy grantor.

The proxy holder may only vote by attending the Shareholders' Meeting in person.

If the Chairman or any other Director, including the Secretary or Deputy Secretary to the Board, is appointed proxy, such appointment shall be effective from the time the Company receives the proxy appointment.

III. - Common rules.

III.1. - Deadline for voting and appointing proxies by remote means of communication.

Proxies appointed and votes cast by remote means of communication, either by post or by electronic means, may be issued from 1 April 2015 and must be received by the Company at its registered offices or over its website 24 hours prior to the date of the General Shareholders' Meeting, that is to say, before 1 pm on 28 April 2015.

Any proxies and votes received after this date shall be void.

After the deadline, only written proxy appointments granted using attendance cards will be accepted and must be presented at the shareholders' registration tables upon arrival at the General Shareholders' Meeting in the place and at the time scheduled.

III.2. - Rules governing priorities for attendance, voting and proxy appointments using remote means of communication.

III.2.1. Priority of attendance in person.

Pursuant to article 21.3.c) of the Company's Articles of Association and article 19.8.d) of the General Shareholders' Meetings Regulations, the vote of a shareholder attending the General Shareholders' Meeting in person will override any vote cast or proxy appointed by remote means of communication.

Votes cast by any remote means of communication will override any proxy-holder appointments carried out previously by electronic means or by printed card, which shall be deemed revoked, or subsequently, which shall be deemed not granted.

III.2.3. Priority in the case of more than one proxy appointment being made and/or more than one vote cast by remote means of communication.

If a shareholder legally appoints more than one proxy or casts more than one vote using different means of remote communication, the last proxy and/or vote to be received shall be considered valid, overriding all those received previously.

III.3. - Co-ownership.

With regard to the co-ownership of shares, and in accordance with article 126 of the Companies Act, a co-owner who votes or appoints a proxy by remote means of communication shall be treated as the remaining co-owners' appointee to exercise the rights relating to the shares.

III.4. - Validity of proxies appointed and votes cast by remote means of communication.

Proxies appointed and votes cast by remote means of communication shall be deemed valid after the shareholder's identity has been verified against inscribed shareholders in the corresponding book-entry register five days prior to the date of the General Shareholders' Meeting. In the event of a difference between the number of shares indicated by the shareholders appointing a proxy or casting their vote by remote means of communication and the number recorded in the Company's shareholder register, the latter shall be deemed valid for quorum and voting purposes.

III.5. - Custody of electronic signatures.

Shareholders are exclusively responsible for the custody of their electronic signature used to vote or appoint proxies by electronic means.

III.6. - Legal entities and non-residents.

Shareholders who are legal entities and shareholders who are non-residents in Spain may discuss with the General Secretary and Secretary to the Board of Directors the possibility of adapting the voting and proxy appointment procedures by remote means of communication to meet their particular requirements.

If a shareholder is a legal entity, it must duly inform the Company, through the Secretary General and the Secretary to the Board of Directors, of any modification or revocation of the powers assigned to the proxy. The Company declines any responsibility until such notification has been made.

IV. - Technical difficulties.

The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict electronic voting or proxy appointing mechanisms when necessary for technical or security reasons.

The Company shall not be held liable for any loss or damage suffered by shareholders as a result of breakdowns, system overloads, lines failures, connection faults, postal delays or any other similar difficulties beyond the Company's control that prevent the correct use of remote voting and proxy-appointment systems.
